Additional support for current SNAP households

Emergency Allotments provide a temporary increase in SNAP benefits to households not currently receiving the maximum SNAP allotment. The District requested and received USDA approval to provide Emergency Allotments to eligible SNAP households. This approval provides more than $5 million per month of additional food assistance to DC residents.

WHO WILL RECEIVE THESE BENEFITS?

- SNAP households not receiving the maximum SNAP allotment for the months of March and April
- Total of 34,400 SNAP households (55% of DC’s current SNAP households)

WHEN WILL SNAP HOUSEHOLDS RECEIVE THESE BENEFITS?

Issuance Date	SNAP Households
April 4-7	Households who received benefits in March
April 17	All ongoing households certified for April and newly certified households as of April 17
April 24	All newly approved households certified after April 17
May 1	All newly approved households certified after April 24.

HOW WILL BENEFITS BE ISSUED?

- Benefits are issued automatically on EBT cards; no action is required

Access to emergency shelter

13

- Low-barrier and emergency shelters serving unaccompanied adults, families, and youth remain open.
- Virginia Williams Family Resource Center is conducting assessments for families via telephone.

Families seeking emergency shelter or homelessness prevention assistance should call the Shelter Hotline at 202-399-7093 or 311. The phone is answered 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

How to File for Unemployment Compensation

1

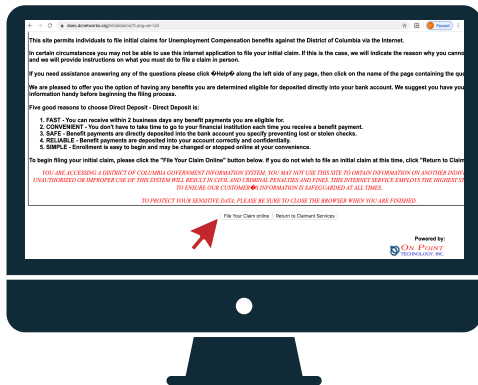

Log on to www.dcnetworks.org, using Internet Explorer, and click the tab labeled “Claim Unemployment Benefits”

2

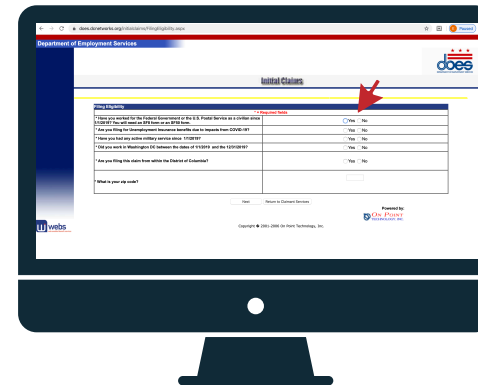

On the Unemployment Insurance Service Center for Claimants page, locate and click the section marked “File for Benefits”

3

Scroll to the bottom of the page and click the section marked “File Your Claim On-Line”

4

Proceed to answering the questions with accurate information to complete the claim filing process.

How to File for Unemployment Compensation

- Work search question has been removed from the online system. Waiting week period has been waived.
- Claimants can email COVID19.UI@dc.gov if they have a specific question in regards to their claim.
- Upon receipt of all required documentation, adjudication takes typically 21 days. We are working to adjudicate all claims as quickly and efficiently as possible.
- Maximum Weekly Benefit = $444 + $600 (starting May 1 and ending on or before July 31, 2020)
- Not to exceed 39 total weeks
- Short-Time Compensation (or Work Share), through December 31, 2020. This allows employers to reduce an employees hours rather than lay them off and have unemployment make up part of the difference. More info to come.

Independent Contractors and Self-Employed/Gig Workers are now eligible to apply, and DOES is working to update their system to address this change.

Ways DC Government Is Supporting Businesses

20

WHAT DSLBD IS DOING

- Providing technical assistance for businesses applying for Small Business Administration (SBA) and other resources
- Hosting regular stakeholder calls to keep businesses up-to-date and informed about current and upcoming resources and developments
- Working with DC Main Streets to activate over $600,000 in grant funding
- Robust Retail: Amended allowable uses of the grant funds for COVID-19 related needs

District Economic Recovery Team (DERT)

Mayor Bowser created the District Economic Recovery Team (DERT) to proactively plan, strategize and coordinate as we restart business activity, support our workforce, and ensure that all of our residents can continue to call Washington, DC home.

The goals of DERT are three-fold:

- 1 Prepare the District to deploy federal funds that can support businesses/employers, workers, and housing needs.
- 2 Coordinate agency efforts to accelerate, adjust, and create local programs that most effectively address employer, workforce and housing.
- 3 Make and implement plans to restart the District's social and economic spheres as soon as public health and safety can be maintained, with a lens to supporting the most vulnerable and most affected.

DC Small Business Recovery Microgrants

DC SMALL BUSINESS RECOVERY MICROGRANT PROGRAM
